Voicemail

Getting Started:

Every account comes with voicemail. You will require your voicemail password to access your configuration and messages menu. Saved messages will be stored for a maximum of 10 days then deleted automatically for you.

Retrieving Your Messages:

1. When someone has left you a message, the "message waiting" lamp/light will light up or flash (depending on your phone). If you do not have a phone with message waiting light, when you pick up the phone there will be a "stutter" dial tone.
2. To retrieve the messages from your home telephone, dial *98 and follow the prompts for retrieving your messages.

Note: You can hang up at any time while listening to your messages and your messages will not be deleted. Messages are only deleted when you manually delete them, by pressing 7 during or after message playback, or after 10 days.

Caller ID and Call Display

In order to have call display, you require a call display capable phone. After the first ring, the name and telephone number of the caller should appear on your display screen. This includes callers who have non-published numbers.

Call Display Notes:

- * Calls from locations that are not equipped for Call Display will appear as “unknown”.
- * Long distance calls may sometimes be displayed as “long distance”.
- * You may not be able to call some of the numbers appearing on your display since they may originate from telephones that cannot receive calls. (i.e. certain pay phones)

Calling Name

Also known as caller name; a service of the public switched telephone network (PSTN) that delivers the name and number of the calling party, as listed in the directory, to the called line, where it can appear on a telephone set equipped with a display or on a peripheral display unit.

Call ID Block (not currently available for Digital Home Phone)

Call ID block will hide your number from the person you are calling on a per-call basis. We are working on providing this service in the near future.

Call Waiting

1. A beep tone tells you that another call is waiting. (Only you hear this tone.)
2. Another reminder will be heard 10 seconds later if the waiting call remains unanswered.
3. The second caller will only hear the normal ring tone.

How to answer a waiting call:

1. Press the LINK* or FLASH* button to put the first call on hold.
2. You will automatically be connected with the second caller.

How to alternate between the calls:

1. Press the LINK* or FLASH* button to alternate between calls.
2. Each conversation is private and cannot be heard by the other caller.

How to end either call:

1. Simply hang up.
2. Your telephone will then ring.
3. When you answer it, you'll be connected with the other caller.

* If you do not have a telephone with a LINK or a FLASH button, depress the switch hook for approximately one second.

Visual Call Waiting

While on the call, you will hear the Call Waiting tone notifying that you are receiving a second phone call. The information for that call will display on your telephone's display screen. Simply press the "Link" or "Flash" button to automatically switch to and speak with the new caller (the original call will not get disconnected).

If you wish to return to your first caller press "Link" or "Flash" again.

Each conversation is private and cannot be heard by the other caller.

Three-Way Calling

To add a third person to your call:

1. Press the LINK* or FLASH* button to place the first call on hold.
2. Listen for a dial tone and then dial the third person. (Speed call codes may be used if you also have this feature.)
3. When the third person answers, you may talk privately with this person before you make the call three-way.
4. To make the call three-way, press and hold the LINK* or FLASH* button for approximately one second to add the person who is currently on hold to your conversation.
5. Your Three-Way Call is now underway.

What to do if the third person's line is busy or they don't answer:

* Press the LINK* or FLASH* button twice to resume your conversation with the person on hold.

How to disconnect the third person:

* Press the LINK* or FLASH* button and you will now have only the original party on the line. Otherwise, if either of the other two people hang up, you can continue to talk to the one remaining.

- If you don't have a telephone with a LINK or FLASH button, depress the switch hook for approximately one second.

Account Self Care Management
